Description of how your charity's activities helped achieve your purpose:

We are a charity established in 2014 supported by members who are volunteers. 1. We continue to provide nutritional and financial support to students living below the poverty line to continue their primary and secondary education and provide scholarships to university students to continue their degrees. 2. We provided livelihood projects to disadvantaged communities living in Sri Lanka to help them become self-sufficient. 3. We financed the provision of physiotherapy and occupational therapy to disabled children and provide relief to their families. 4. We have established education centers to propagate human values. 5. We provided sporting facilities, equipment and coaching to children in remote villages.
