Description of charity's activities and outcomes:

We were established as a charity in 2014 with a low cost operation supported by volunteers. We provide grants and hope to the disadvantaged people in Srilanka. Our core values are: 1. Providing grants for the care of people with physical or mental disability in Srilanka. 2. Providing scholarships to young people of disadvantaged background for attending primary, secondary or university education. 3. Offering micro credit facilities to communities in the war torn area of the North & East of Srilanka. 4. Empowering families in the villages to create a sustainable livelihood by granting sanitation and water projects. 5. Engaging with local communities to address and eliminate stigma, isolation, sexual abuse and discrimination. 6. Providing sporting facilities and equipment for the under privileged children. 7. We work with a registered NGO named Kaveri Kala Manram (KKM) in Srilanka.
